16 September, 2010

Dear members,

We are sorry that the newsletter is delayed until now because we were at the transition period of registering as a charitable organization.

News:

1. Kristina Thomas, the EXCO member, has resigned because of personal reason. Her resignation is accepted and we are now looking for a suitable candidate to replace her position.
2. It is a friendly reminder to our members that please kindly pay the annual membership fee at your earliest convenient. You could pay it by either cheque or cash during the open hour on every Monday and Saturday except public holiday.
3. Starting from October 2010, our office will be open on Saturday afternoon from 2:00-5:00pm except public holiday. Please kindly call the office before hand.

Activities:

1. Steve Ng, our Vice-Chairment, will host a talk of Lung Tsun Bridge on 27 September from 7:00pm - 9:00pm at FTU Yaumatei office, 1/F, 466 Nathan Road. He is going to give us more details about the conservation plan and tell us the story of Lung Tsun Bridge. Please come and join us!
2. We are going to organize 2 trips in coming October and November. Please see below for the details:
 - ◆ Macau visit on 10 October: Professor Siu Kwok Kin, our Honorary advisor, will be the guide and tell us the story and history of the Forts in Macau. Please complete the form attached at the back if you are interested into it. Fee for member is $250 and for non-member is $280. Including the single sea fare, land transport and lunch at Macau.
 - A 2-day visit of Taishan & Sheung Chuen Island on 20-21 Nov (Organized by a licensed travel agency: 353294): you could visit the church of St Francis Xavier who is the first missionary came to China and one of the oldest rock carvings in Guangdong provinces. Member-rate: HKD$1,000 and non-member rate: HKD$1,100.

Please note that they are on first-come-first-serve basis so please return us the application form as soon as possible. Thanks!

Books for sale:

- Rock Carvings in Hong Kong 香港古石刻 by William Meacham with author's autograph: regular retail price is HKD$200 and special offer to member is HKD$100 with author's signature.
- An introduction of HK Archaeology by Steven Ng with author's autograph: regular retail price is RMB80 and discounted price for our member is HKD$80.

Please come to the office on 11 October from 2.00pm to 5.00pm and check them out!

3. Regarding our annual excavation project, it is still at the discussion stage with AMO. We will update the information on our website once we have further details.

Regards,
Hong Kong Archaeology Society
